

Creative Purses

Tuesday, 20 May 2008

Ceramic artist Kathleen Dustin is widely recognized as one of the world's leading polymer clay artist, & who has been working with polymer clay for more than two decades, developing her own techniques as it was a material with no history as a fine art or fine craft medium. Her exquisite evening bags have been celebrated for their emotional images of women, vibrant colors & creativity.